JOIN IN BUILDING CONDUIT.
Gen. Harries Pledges Aid of Railway and Lighting Companies.

After carefully considering the question of conduit extension on the Columbia road and out old 10th street to Park street in Mount Pleasant, Gen. George Harries, the vice president of the Washington Railway and Electric Company, has informed Walter Allen, the electrical engineer of the District, that the railroad and lighting companies will join in the construction of a conduit, provided they are assured of the additional service referred to in a previous letter from Mr. Allen.

Mr. Allen stated to General Harries that the District street department intended to asphalt the Columbia road from 10th to 18th streets in connection with the extension of the Metropolitan railway system on Columbia road and on 10th street from that thoroughfare to Park street. For this reason it was greatly desired by the electrical department that the lights should be established on said street. It was estimated that twenty-four lamps be erected. Mr. Allen has stated to General Harries that the Commissioners Macfarland and Blidde have assented to the extension of the service, and that the electrical engineer would, therefore, request the companies to forward their application for a permit for this purpose.

Mr. Allen, simultaneously, with that letter to General Harries, recommended to the Commissioners that the conduit should be established on the line above set forth. This has been approved.

LITTLE FALLS GOOD TEMPLARS.
Grand Officers Received and Lodge Birthday Anniversary Celebrated.

Good Templar Hall, by the Conduit road at Little Falls, was well filled Friday evening by members of the order, the double occasion being an official visit from the Grand Lodge officers, and the celebration of the sixth anniversary of the lodge. Acting officers in the Grand Lodge corps were Chief Templar Arthur W. Eldridge of Greenwood Lodge, Wakefield, Mass., as grand treasurer; Past Chief Ellis Shoe-maker, a charter member of Silver Star Lodge, as grand secretary; and John J. P. Voss, as grand master.

An extended program of music and songs was rendered. Miss Mary Sherier, lodge secretary, presided at the piano. Mr. Eldridge, in his address, spoke of the advance in temperance sentiment in that state. Assistant Grand Secretary Bryson reported that the lodge in that state was in excellent condition, and remarked upon the comparatively few intemperate persons seen in the city during the lodge in that state.

Addressing the touching upon the history of Little Falls Lodge and various phases of Good Templarism, were made by Grand Templar Russell, Grand Commander Corby, Grand Chaplain Mrs. Nettie Cole, Messrs. Shoemaker, Finney and St. John of Silver Star Lodge, and by Messrs. Barnes, John Sherier, Mrs. J. Sherier and the chief templar of the home lodge.

At the conclusion of the program the members of Little Falls Lodge served refreshments.

BOY BADLY HURT.
Shoulder Broken and Lung Punctured by Falling From Tree.

Charles Elgie, fourteen years old, whose home is at 3719 M street northwest, was met with a serious accident yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock while chestnut hunting near the Elgie's. He fell from a tree and was injured.

The injured boy was immediately picked up by his mother and brought to the Chain bridge, where the party was met by the seventh precinct patrol wagon and taken to the Georgetown University Hospital. The physician at the hospital says that the boy's lung was punctured by a broken rib. It is thought that the boy will soon recover.

FOOLED HIM.
BUT IN THE PLEASANT WAY OF PEACE.

Good thing some men are married. Their wives are a valuable asset, and have a way to help overcome their troubles.

Mr. E. Lewis of Shanko, Ore., was located for several years at various points in South America and felt the necessity of recently doing a little office. He says: "I took to using it the same as those nervous, excitable men in South and Central America. They make very black coffee and it becomes more and more irritating because at the end of about four months, I began having severe sick headaches and nervousness, but having it from the tropical sun. At last my wife became alarmed at my headaches and stomach trouble. She tried to induce me to quit drinking coffee, laying my trouble to that; but I continued to use it."

"She read of Postum Food Coffee, and ordered some. The first time I drank it, I was cured from me. The very first time I made it, when I came in for my coffee and told me that peculiar, pleasant flavor of Postum, and asked me what it was. She said she had never heard of it, and asked me how I liked it. I tried two cups of it with rich 'Leche-de-Cafe,' which is used by every one as milk in Panama, and thought it excellent. After a couple of days, my headaches stopped, and in a short while my nervousness disappeared as if by magic. I have been using nothing but Postum for the past year, and have been completely cured, and my wife has also been cured of suffering by drinking Postum, and we shall never go back to coffee again."

CLOUDY, PROBABLY RAIN.

Tuesday Fair, Cooler; Brisk to High
Westerly Winds.

Forecast till 8 p. m. Tuesday: For the District of Columbia, Delaware and Maryland, cloudy tonight, probably rain; Tuesday fair, cooler; brisk to high westerly winds.

For Virginia, cloudy tonight, probably rain; Tuesday cooler and fair, except rain in southeast portion; brisk south to west winds.

Weather conditions and general forecast: A disturbance that was first noticed Friday night over the middle plateau moved eastward to the middle slope by Sunday morning with steadily increasing intensity, and then much more rapidly with greatly increased intensity to northeastern Michigan, where it is central this morning. It has been attended by general rains from the Rocky mountains eastward to the Ohio valley, the lower lake region and the west Gulf states, and by high winds in the central valleys and lake region; elsewhere the weather referred to is fair to light middle Atlantic states and New England, where there was a little rain Sunday morning.

Temperatures have risen east and south of the storm center, and fallen decidedly toward westward, where they are four to ten degrees below normal. The storm will continue its northeastward movement during Monday, causing rain tonight in the lower lake region, the middle and south Atlantic states, followed by generally fair weather Tuesday. There will also be showers tonight in the east Gulf states.

It will be cooler tonight from the lower lake region southwestward through the south Atlantic and Gulf states, and cooler Tuesday in the lower lake region and Atlantic states.

On the middle Atlantic coast the winds will be high tonight, but cooler Tuesday. The Atlantic coast fresh to brisk westerly, on the east Gulf coast light to fresh, shifting to northerly, and on the lower lakes high westerly.

Storm warnings are displayed on the great lakes, and on the Atlantic coast from North Carolina to Cape Fear, N. C. Steamer departures today for European ports will have increasing southeast to south winds, with cloudy weather, followed by rain, to the Grand Banks.
